

Refugees & Human Rights Child & Youth Poetry Contest – Information Sheet

Topic: Refugees and Human Rights

Eligibility: This contest is open to students in Grades 4-12 who are attending school in Ontario. Poems can be written in French or English with a maximum of 24 lines. Awards will be given based on the following three grade categories for a total of three first prizes: Group I grades 4-5-6, Group II grades 7-8, Group III grades 9-10-11-12. Current employees or relatives of COSTI Immigrant Services are not eligible to enter the contest.

Prizes: COSTI Immigrant Services will publish the winning poems on its website. Each category will be awarded a first, second and third prize.

Decisions: Judges will be members of COSTI Immigrant Services and others to be announced. Entries will be judged on the basis of originality, creative imagination, characterization, artistic quality, adherence to the topic and rules established for the contest. All decisions of the judges are final.

Fees: No entry fees and no purchases of any kind required to enter and win the contest.

Rights: All poems remain the property of the artist. By submitting a poem for this contest, the artist grants permission to COSTI Immigrant Services to publish the poem, profile contest participants, and use submitted materials in any manner related to refugee and human rights promotion, including for World Refugee Day. COSTI Immigrant Services is under no obligation to publish any contest entries. The artist is under no obligation to purchase a copy of the publication in which the poem may appear.

Notification: All prize winners will be notified and posted at www.costi.org.

Winners will be announced on World Refugee Day – June 20, 2022, for prize awards and photo/interview opportunity. Children younger than 16 will need to be accompanied by a responsible adult that can authorize and sign on their behalf.

For further information or enquiries contact: communications@costi.org
