Student Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct outlines what we expect from you to make the Language Education Centre a safe, secure and happy learning environment for everyone. Being a student of the Centre is all about making the most of your time while you are here. Our staff are here to support and help you with all aspects of your development and learning. All students are expected to abide by the Language Education Centre regulations as follows:

Accept responsibility for your learning by making sure you attend classes regularly & punctually and by working on your skills between classes.

Inform the Centre or instructor as soon as possible if you cannot attend class for any reason.

Behave in a respectful way towards all other students & staff. Honour the equality of all people, avoiding all forms of discrimination and respecting the dignity of each person without regard to economic status, age, gender, race, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, or physical or mental abilities.

Value cultural diversity. Treat everyone with respect, loyalty, patience, integrity, courtesy, dignity, and consideration.

Respect other people's ideas and opinions. Agree to Disagree. Respect at all times, even when there is/especially when there is a disagreement.

Be aware of our Health & Safety regulations and act at all times with regard to your own safety and that of others.

Demonstrate honesty and integrity. Show care and respect for your own property, the property of the school and the property of others.

Use respectful language. Profane or obscene words/language, name calling, in the class room, Centre or to another student is prohibited.

Share in keeping the Centre clean and tidy. Respect the equipment and property of the Centre and that of its staff, other students and visitors.
