

Learn to navigate through the digital world

Join this program to develop digital literacy and essential skills to help with your employment search.

Program Highlights:

- 25 hours of free online instruction.
- Certificate upon completion

Topics Include:

- Computer and its functions
- Searching the internet effectively
- Shopping and banking online
- Social media and online communications
- Job search and studying online
- Protecting privacy and security online.

Note: This program is available to Permanent Residents and Convention Refugees. A language assessment from YMCA is required.

To learn more, scan this QR code.

Testimonial:

"This course helped me a lot! I can use the knowledge in my job search and daily communication. The instructor assisted the students along the way, and presented the content clearly and effectively. She was excellent."

Rene Wang
Alumnus, DMLT Program

Services are available at no cost to employers.

For more information, contact:

Phone: 416.244.9980

Email: linctoronto@costi.org

Website: www.costi.org

Financé par :

Funded by:

Immigration, Réfugiés
et Citoyenneté Canada

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada