Program Highlights:

- 36 hours of job-specific language training.
- Training content and schedule tailored to the organization's needs.
- Training offered through online, on-site or blended modes as per employer's preference.

Note: This program is available to employees who are Permanent Residents, or those with a valid IRCC-issued Confirmation of Permanent Residence letter, or convention refugees.

Testimonial:

"Key employees from our engineering, IT and software testing functions attended the LTW program. There was evident progress among all participants towards the end of the program. And the instructors and their teaching methods were rated very highly by participants."
